

Pow Wow 2009

change@crisis

11-13 SEPTEMBER 2009
MUNICH, GERMANY

FULBRIGHT ALUMNI E.V.

01

SERVUS

Dear Fulbrighters and friends,
You are invited to this year's Pow Wow "change@crisis". Think about it: crisis means opportunity! What does this mean to you? Come join us for a weekend in Munich. After racking our brains for solutions to the world's problems during the day, we want to share some of Munich's best, from beer gardens to BMW Welt with you.

We look forward to seeing you and wish you a nice summer!

Sincerely,
Fulbright Alumni e.V.
Munich Chapter

04 LOGISTICS

Accommodation

For a list of hotels and hostels in Munich:

www.muenchen.de/hotel

Limited private accommodation is available on a first come, first serve basis. If interested, please contact Stephan Albert (stephan.albert@ph.tum.de).

Public Transportation

Munich's system, also known as the MVV, is not the simplest. Therefore we have the following recommendations:

For travel within the city:

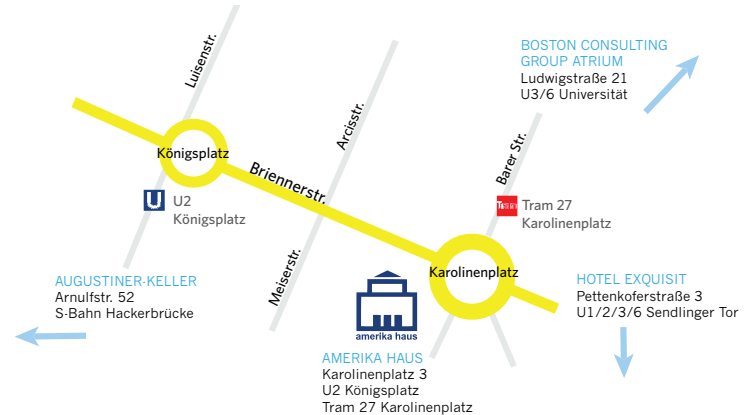

The cheapest ticket is the Partner-Ticket, valid for up to five people for 9 EUR for one day and 21 EUR for 3 days.

Single day passes cost 5 EUR for one day and 12,30 EUR for 3 days.

Travel to/from the Airport:

A Single day pass costs 10 EUR and a group ticket for up to five people 18 EUR.
